

国際機関就職ガイダンス2018

Career Seminar on Working for International Organizations

Monday, January 29, 2018

6-7:30pm

Sanger Hall, Coolidge Building, Chatham University, Pittsburgh

Overview

Working for international organizations requires conscious career planning. At this seminar, you will learn about the work environment in international organizations, strategies for joining the UN, and recruitment efforts currently underway by the Japanese Government, including the JPO program.

Speaker

Keisuke FUKUDA (福田 圭介)

First Secretary, Permanent Mission of Japan to the United Nations

Language Japanese (ガイダンスは全て日本語で行います)

RSVP to jinji-center@dn.mofa.go.jp by Thursday, January 25, 2018

This event is organized by Permanent Mission of Japan to the United Nations and hosted by the English Language Program and the Office of International Affairs at Chatham University

Contact:

国際機関人事センターNY支部

Tel : +1-212-521-1528

FAX : +1-212-521-0676

Mail : jinji-center@dn.mofa.go.jp

HP: http://www.un.emb-

japan.go.jp/jp/hr/guidance_18.html

Chatham Campus Map:

<http://chatham.edu/about/directions-map/campus-map.cfm>

Chatham University

UN Photo